*Attorneys for Defendant
Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company*

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

BRIAN DORNELLAS as Trustee of the
SHELLY COLLINS RECOVERABLE LIVING
TRUST,

Plaintiff,

v.

MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:20-CV-00141

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

The parties to this Stipulated Protective Order have agreed to the terms of this Order; accordingly, it is ORDERED:

1. Scope.

All materials produced or adduced from parties or non-parties in the course of discovery, including initial disclosures, responses to discovery requests, responses to subpoenas, deposition testimony and exhibits, and information derived directly therefrom (hereinafter collectively “documents”), shall be subject to this Order concerning Confidential Information as defined below. This Order is subject to the Local Rules of this District and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on matters of procedure and calculation of time periods.

2. Confidential Information.

As used in this Order, “Confidential Information” means information designated as

1 “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER.” Information designed as 2 “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” by the producing party must fall within 3 one or more of the following categories: (a) information prohibited from disclosure by statute; (b)
4 information that reveals trade secrets; (c) research, technical, commercial, or financial information that 5 the party has maintained as confidential; (d) medical information concerning any individual; (e) personal 6 identity information; (f) income tax returns (including attached schedules and forms), W-2 forms and 7 1099 forms; or (g) personnel or employment records of a person who is not a party to the case.

8 Information or documents that are available to the public may not be designated as Confidential
9 Information.

10 3. Designation of Documents.

11 a) A party may designate a document as Confidential Information for protection
12 under this Order by placing or affixing the words “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE 13 ORDER” on the document and on all copies in a manner that will not interfere with the legibility of the 14 document. As used in this Order, “copies” includes electronic images, duplicates, extracts, summaries
15 or descriptions that contain the Confidential Information. The marking “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT
16 TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” shall be applied prior to or at the time of the documents being produced
17 or disclosed. Applying the marking “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” to a 18 document does not mean that the document has any status or protection by statute or otherwise except 19 to the extent and for the purposes of this Order. Any copies that are made of any documents marked 20 “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” shall also be so marked, except that 21 indices, electronic databases or lists of documents that do not contain substantial portions or images of 22 the text of marked documents and do not otherwise disclose the substance of the Confidential
23 Information are not required to be marked.

24 b) The designation of a document as Confidential Information is a certification that 25 an attorney, in good faith, believes that the document contains Confidential Information as defined in 26 this Order.

1           4.       Depositions.

2           Unless all parties agree on the record at the time the deposition testimony is taken, all deposition
3 testimony taken in this case shall be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE
4 ORDER” until the expiration of the following: No later than the 30th day after the transcript is delivered
5 to any party or the witness, and in no event later than 60 days after the testimony was given. Within this 6 time period, a party may serve a Notice of Designation to all parties of record as to specific portions of 7 the testimony that are designated Confidential Information, and thereafter only those portions identified
8 in the Notice of Designation shall be protected by the terms of this Order. The failure to serve a timely
9 Notice of Designation shall not act as a waiver of any party’s right to later designate portions of the 10 transcript as Confidential Information, but any party’s disclosure of the Confidential Information prior 11 to receiving the Notice of Designation is not a violation of this Order. Upon receiving a belated Notice
12 of Designation, a receiving party shall make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in 13 accordance with the provisions of this Order.

14           5.       Protection of Confidential Material.

15           a)       General Protections. Confidential Information shall not be used or disclosed by 16 the parties, counsel for the parties or any other persons identified in subparagraph (b) for any purpose 17 whatsoever other than in this litigation, including any appeal thereof.

18           b)       Protection of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information. The parties and counsel for 19 the parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any other party’s information marked as 20 “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” to any third person or entity except as set
21 forth in subparagraphs (1)-(9). Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may 22 be allowed to review information marked as “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE 23 ORDER”:

- 24                   1) Counsel. Counsel for the parties, including in-house counsel, and employees of 25                   counsel who have responsibility for the action;
- 26                   2) Parties. Employees of a party but only to the extent counsel determines in good 27                   faith that the employee’s assistance is reasonably necessary to the conduct of the 28                   litigation in which the information is disclosed;

1                   3) The Court and Its Personnel;

2                   4) Court Reporters and Recorders. Court reporters and recorders engaged for
3                   depositions;

4                   5) Contractors. Those persons specifically engaged for the limited purpose of 5                   making copies of documents or organizing or processing documents, including 6                   outside vendors hired to process electronically stored documents;

7                   6) Consultants and Experts. Consultants, investigators, or experts employed by the 8                   parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial of this action 9                   but only after such persons have completed the certification contained in 10                  Attachment A, Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound;

11                  7) Witnesses at Depositions. During their depositions, witnesses in this action to 12                  whom disclosure is reasonably necessary. Witnesses shall not retain a copy of 13                  documents containing Confidential Information, except witnesses may receive a 14                  copy of all exhibits marked at their depositions in connection with review of the 15                  transcripts. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions 16                  that are designated as Confidential Information pursuant to the process set out in 17                  this Order must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be 18                  disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Order.

19                  8) Author or Recipient. The author or recipient of the document (not including a 20                  person who received the document in the course of litigation); and 21                  9) Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the producing party

22                  or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may be agreed or ordered.

23                  c) Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall make reasonable efforts to 24                  prevent unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of Confidential Information. Counsel shall maintain the 25                  originals of the forms signed by persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order for a period
26                  of three years after the termination of the case.

1           6. Inadvertent Failure to Designate.

2           An inadvertent failure to designate a document as Confidential Information does not, standing
3 alone, waive the right to so designate the document. If a producing party designates a document as 4 Confidential Information after it was initially produced, the receiving party, on notification of the 5 designation, must make a reasonable effort to assure that the document is treated in accordance with the 6 provisions of this Order. No party shall be found to have violated this Order for failing to maintain the 7 confidentiality of material during a time when that material has not been designated Confidential
8 Information, even where the failure to so designate was inadvertent and where the material is 9 subsequently designated Confidential Information.

10           7. Filing of Confidential Information.

11           This Order does not, by itself, authorize the filing of any document under seal. Any party wishing 12 to file a document designated as Confidential Information in connection with a motion, brief or other 13 submission to the Court must comply with the Local Rules, including LR IA 10-5.

14           8. No Greater Protection of Specific Documents.

15           Except on privilege grounds not addressed by this Order, no party may withhold information
16 from discovery on the ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless 17 the party moves for an order providing such special protection.

18           9. Challenges by a Party to Designation as Confidential Information.

19           The designation of any material or document as “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO 20 PROTECTIVE ORDER” is subject to challenge by any party. The following procedure shall apply to 21 any such challenge.

22           a) Meet and Confer. A party challenging the designation of Confidential
23 Information must do so in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly with counsel for 24 the designating party. In conferring, the challenging party must explain the basis for its belief that the 25 confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the designating party an opportunity to review 26 the designated material, to reconsider the designation, and, if no change in designation is offered, to 27 explain the basis for the designation. The designating party must respond to the challenge within five 28 business days.

1           b) Judicial Intervention. A party that elects to challenge a confidentiality
2 designation may file and serve a motion that identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail
3 the basis for the challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that 4 affirms that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements of this procedure. The 5 burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the designating party. Until the Court
6 rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to treat the materials as Confidential Information under 7 the terms of this Order.

8           10. Action by the Court.

9           Applications to the Court for an order relating to materials or documents designated Confidential
10 Information shall be by motion. Nothing in this Order or any action or agreement of a party under this 11 Order limits the Court's power to make orders concerning the disclosure of documents produced in 12 discovery or at trial.

13           11. Use of Confidential Information at Trial.

14           Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the use of any document, material, or 15 information at any trial or hearing. A party that intends to present or that anticipates that another party
16 may present Confidential Information at a hearing or trial shall bring that issue to the Court's and parties'
17 attention by motion or in a pretrial memorandum without disclosing the Confidential Information. The 18 Court may thereafter make such orders as are necessary to govern the use of such documents or 19 information at trial.

20           12. Confidential Information Subpoenaed or Ordered Produced in Other Litigation.

21           a) If a receiving party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation
22 that would compel disclosure of any material or document designated in this action as Confidential
23 Information, the receiving party must so notify the designating party, in writing, immediately and in no
24 event more than three court days after receiving the subpoena or order. Such notification must include 25 a copy of the subpoena or court order.

26           b) The receiving party also must immediately inform in writing the party who caused 27 the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the 28

1 subpoena or order is the subject of this Order. In addition, the receiving party must deliver a copy of 2 this Order promptly to the party in the other action that caused the subpoena to issue.

3           c)       The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested persons to the 4 existence of this Order and to afford the designating party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its 5 Confidential Information in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The designating party
 6 shall bear the burden and the expense of seeking protection in that court of its Confidential Information, 7 and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a receiving party in 8 this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court. The obligations set forth in this paragraph 9 remain in effect while the party has in its possession, custody or control Confidential Information by the 10 other party to this case.

11           13. Challenges by Members of the Public to Sealing Orders.

12           A party or interested member of the public has a right to challenge the sealing of particular 13 documents that have been filed under seal, and the party asserting confidentiality will have the burden 14 of demonstrating the propriety of filing under seal.

15           14. Obligations on Conclusion of Litigation.

16           a)       Order Continues in Force. Unless otherwise agreed or ordered, this Order shall 17 remain in force after dismissal or entry of final judgment not subject to further appeal.

18           b)       Obligations at Conclusion of Litigation. Within 63 days after dismissal or entry
 19 of final judgment not subject to further appeal, all Confidential Information and documents marked 20 “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” under this Order, including copies as 21 defined in ¶ 3(a), shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the document has been offered into 22 evidence or filed without restriction as to disclosure; (2) the parties agree to destruction to the extent 23 practicable in lieu of return; or (3) as to documents bearing the notations, summations, or other mental 24 impressions of the receiving party, that party elects to destroy the documents and certifies to the 25 producing party that it has done so.

26           c)       Retention of Work Product and One Set of Filed Documents. Notwithstanding 27 the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel may retain (1) attorney work product,
 28 including an index that refers or relates to designated Confidential Information so long as that work

1 product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of Confidential Information, and (2) one
2 complete set of all documents filed with the Court including those filed under seal. Any retained
3 Confidential Information shall continue to be protected under this Order. An attorney may use his or 4 her work product in subsequent litigation, provided that its use does not disclose or use Confidential
5 Information.

6 d) Deletion of Documents Filed under Seal from Electronic Case Filing (ECF)
7 System. Filings under seal shall be deleted from the ECF system only upon order of the Court.

8 15. Order Subject to Modification.

9 This Order shall be subject to modification by the Court on its own initiative or on motion of a 10 party or any other person with standing concerning the subject matter.

11 16. No Prior Judicial Determination.

12 This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the parties and for the 13 purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial 14 determination that any document or material designated Confidential Information by counsel or the 15 parties is entitled to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise 16 until such time as the Court may rule on a specific document or issue.
